Price adjustment notification

With continued global price pressures impacting both raw materials and transportation costs, NHP will be applying a price increase to our Industrial Product portfolio (non-Rockwell Automation) effective 1 March 2022. The weighted list price increase will be approximately 8% across the product portfolio.

Digital Advancements

Global circumstances today have seen a need to urgently accelerate access to digital information resources. NHP continues to invest in improving our digital agility and accessibility to online

The online portal allows registered users to check price and availability of the extensive NHP product portfolio, create and review open quotes and access in-depth technical information. Click here to access the online portal.

The updated Price List Catalogue will be available on the NHP website from 1 March 2022. Click here to access the updated price list catalogue.

On behalf of the NHP team, we greatly appreciate your continued business and support. Should you require further details regarding any of the above, please contact your local NHP Account Representative. |
